

HOME VISITING
EVALUATION

Researching Implementation Support Experiences

Selected Findings 2015

Based on responses from 69 supervisors and 232 home visitors from around the country...

What is the average length of time Supervisors and Home Visitors have been in their roles?

Supervisors - 50 months

Home Visitors - 48 months

59% of home visitors participated in weekly supervision meetings

Reflective Supervision

87% of supervisors use a reflective supervision approach

Supervisors and Reflective Supervision

65% of supervisors received training

86% of supervisors feel knowledgeable about the reflective supervision approach

86% of supervisors feel comfortable using the approach

74% of supervisors were satisfied with the quality of supervision they provided

78% of home visitors were satisfied with the quality of supervision they received

■ Supervisors ■ Home Visitors

8 out of 10 supervisors were satisfied or very satisfied with the TA they received

Who Receives TA and Support from External Sources?

■ Supervisors ■ Home Visitors

Supervisors are more likely to be the recipient of TA and support. They receive almost 3 hours more support each month than home visitors.

How do home visitors feel about their skills?

- ★ 89% report having developed the necessary skills to serve families well by their experiences in the field
- ★ 71% feel they know how to increase family retention and interest
- ★ 77% feel they have enough training to deal with most home visiting situations
- ★ 88% feel confident in their abilities to implement new strategies suggested by their supervisor
- ★ 87% report they can accurately assess whether plans require modification if a family has difficulty implementing them