

DCYF Scholarship Funding Guide

This outlines the educational programs, certificates and credentials the Washington State Department of Children, Youth, and Families (DCYF) recognizes. The information within this guide will also indicate if a program is eligible for DCYF scholarship funding.

More Information Is Available Online:

- DCYF scholarship funding
tinyurl.com/ScholarshipsIncentivesAwards
- WAC Chapter 110-300-0100
tinyurl.com/110-300-0100
- Find College/University contact information in the Career Planning Portal
<https://ececareers.dcyf.wa.gov/>

Please Note:

- You can meet your education staff qualification through aligned credits even if the program, certificate or credential is not eligible for DCYF scholarship funding. Additional information on meeting an education requirement through aligned credits is available online at tinyurl.com/Publication037.
- To find more information on funded programs, including language offerings, visit the Early Learning Career Planning Portal online at tinyurl.com/ECECareers1.
- The Early Childhood Education (ECE) Initial, Short and State certificate are the stackable certificates that lead to an associate degree.

DCYF cannot guarantee program availability. You will need to contact the college or university to see when they offer the certificate or degree you desire.
